We do things—not because they are easy, but because they are right. Francesca DeTomassa—Fran, and even Chesca to some of her friends—has it all: she's the daughter of a local politician, has scholarships to college and law school, and now, in her final year and about to graduate, even has the internship she wants, for a production studio out in California. But Fran has a secret... A sworn member of a Circle, an order who protect and promote the Light, Fran is bound not only to them by oath and Law, but also by blood, soul, and love, to the person who is the Circle's focal point, the Wielder. And therein lies the source, the secret, and the sacrifice. Love sacrificed for the greater good, with the hope of "someday." Until someday becomes now, bringing with it a choice to be made: not between loves, nor even between "right" and "wrong," but what is ultimately the greatest good—not just for her, but for everyone.
