This battle map of the D Day Landing Beaches is in four colours and is double-sided. One side is devoted to the British landings and the other to the American landings both air and sea. The map folds out to about 24 x 18 inches and shows modern roads, battle lines, contours (essential for understanding the importance of the ground over which the battles were fought), memorials, bunkers, cemeteries and museums. Each side has comprehensive indexes, with a simple grid reference system that enables all the information to be easily found.
