Little Life Poems: A personal anthology of poems about life from a young girls perspective Cassandra Elliott

This book follows the emotional, personal and creative side of a young girl as she grows into a young lady. All poems are original and deal with all the things young girls go through as they're growing up during their teenage years into adulthood. These poems were written at the times of having a first crush, a first time, heartbreak, learning to respect yourself, learning to love your body, experiencing the world and losing someone close. There's sure to be a poem for every emotional stage in every young girl's life. Something all girls can relate to from someone who's been there herself and is lucky enough to be able to share her experiences with others.
