Here is a classic bereavement book, considered one of the better bereavement books ever written. Now re-released in its original form with the elegant dying autumn leaf on a gloss-black cover, this is a brightly-written healing book that, through a series of heartfelt vignettes, helps to transform the reader out of the grieving process.

Early Winter is neither a technical nor schmaltzy book. Readers report that they read the book and somehow, when they're finished, they feel better.
