Review of Orthopaedics

Dr. Miller and more than a dozen expert contributors have fully revised and updated the Review - distilling the broad body of literature on orthopaedics into a single easy to understand volume. Readers will find the very latest contributions from review courses, textbooks, current journal articles, Academy publications, videos, and computer products. It is an indispensable aid for residents and practicing orthopaedic surgeons preparing for board exams. It also serves as a succinct but thorough synopsis of key concepts and procedures - making it a central reference for the entire field. Review of the Last Edition: "Dr. Miller is to be congratulated on his industry: rarely has more knowledge been packed into a surgical paperback...Recommended to all."-"Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery", British Edition.
