Bantam Book Club Edition. Set against the vastness of Montana's Big Sky country in the years after the Civil War, and against the epic tragedy of the Cheyenne (the People of the Morning Star) here is the story of Joel Ryan and the two courageous, beautiful and very different women he loved. Desperate to put the ravages of the Civil War behind him, Joel Ryan travels west. But he soon finds that the solitude he so desperately craves is not to be his. Early in his journey he rescues a beautiful Cheyenne princess, Mourning Dove, from Henri Larocque, a renegade Canadian who had intended to sell her to an enemy tribe. Even as Joel frees her, she frees his heart from the sorrow that has darkened it - with a love so strong it will cause them to defy her people. Pulsing with the power and romance of the untamed land, here is an enthralling love story filled with the history, lore and legend of a vanished world.
