Worth the Wait (First Time Gay) Van Barrett

I haven't seen my best friend Leo in years. When I saw that familiar face at a friend's camp-out, I could barely believe it was actually him. He's so manly looking now -- and big and muscular, too. But his smile hasn't changed one bit.

I didn't think anything of it when Leo took me away from the camp-fire to go star-gazing. After all, that's the kinda thing we always did as kids. But a lot has changed in a few short years. And when Leo starts hinting that our boyhood bond might have been something more, I'm speechless.

What would you do if your best friend since forever wanted to kiss you? What would you think if you didn't even want him to stop?

This 10,900+ word erotic romance features two best friends making up for lost time in the woods! This is a spicy stand-alone with no cliffhanger.
